The sports club ATUS Graz is pleased to be the host of the 1st ERSO Show Contest, which is held on November 29th 2014 in the city of Graz.

The Host City: Graz

Graz, with approximately 300.000 inhabitants Austria's second biggest city, is the capital of the region Styria. It is famous for pumpkin products (like seeds, oil, soups, etc.) and wine (mainly white wine and a special wine called „Schilcher“).

The city is a world cultural heritage centre, being hardly touched during the wars of the 19th and 20th century. In 2003 Graz was the cultural capital of Europe.

Travelling to Graz

The airport Graz Thalerhof is located 10 km from the city centre and offers connections to Star Alliance hubs (Frankfurt, Munich, Düsseldorf, Vienna) and Air Berlin hubs (Berlin, Palma de Mallorca)

Guests will be met at the airport and accompanied by train to the city centre. The train station is in walking distance (500 m) of the airport.

Guests arriving at the main train station will be welcomed there.

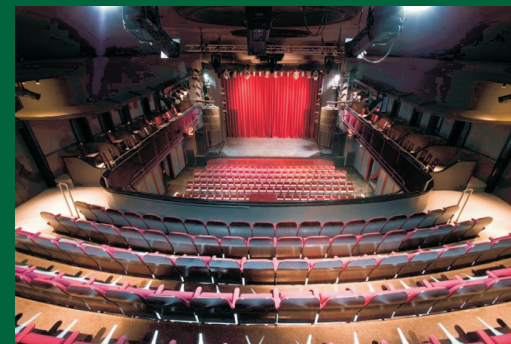

For easier transport in and around Graz, bus/tramway tickets will be given to all of our guests.

The Event Venue: Orpheum Graz

The Orpheum Graz is a small theatre in the city centre, built in the 1950's. Today it is used for cabarets, small concerts and other musical events.

The main hall with a stage of 9,5 m depth x 9,3 m width, seats around 600 spectators. The warming up area will be located in the second hall.

The Hotel: A&O Hotel/Hostel Graz

Our guests will be staying in the A&O Hotel/Hostel Graz, which is located in walking distance from the main train station and also the Orpheum Theatre.

The rooms are mainly 4-bed and 6-bed rooms with en suite toilet and shower. In addition, the hotel offers many socializing areas.
